Editorial

As we embark on another 365-day journey, RHK is truly grateful to share another year with our readers, fans, models, photographers, and everyone else who continues to support us.

2020 was filled with plenty of memories ... some good, some bad ... but memories nonetheless! The main takeaway from 2020, at least for me personally, was to count my blessings. Be grateful. Savor the moment. Breathe. Look for the positives in every situation. And hopefully I was able to convey that message to everyone I had an opportunity to work with. Even though we faced small obstacles and challenges, we had (and have) so much to be thankful for ... and a better day is always on the horizon!

With all of the challenges we faced in 2020, we were still able to continue our operations without interruption ... and had another great year! We released exclusive content every month, with over 25 all-new issues. We worked with new featured models, while some of our previously featured models returned with even hotter content!

All in all ... last year was a huge success!

In 2021, we hope to get back on our promo-tours, which give us the opportunity to meet and discover the world's hottest models. And, as always, our goal is to deliver the best magazines and products we possibly can ... our readers and fans deserve nothing but the best!

Again, thank you for everything ...

I greatly appreciate YOU!

Former Mrs. Hawaii ... and I lost 45lbs on the road to victory, winning my first NPC Bikini competition in 2019. During the pandemic I was able to obtain my 500hr RYT Yoga Teacher certificate. I love to live a healthy lifestyle it comes naturally now. I stay in shape from doing Brazilian jiu-jitsu and Pole Dance. Living in Hawaii, I practically live in the ocean. It was only a matter of time that I would be starting my own bikini collection. I’m excited to launch my new exclusive collection in May.
Q&A

How long have you been modeling?

I have been modeling for 5 years, but ever since I won my first NPC bikini competition, I’ve been doing a lot of fitness modeling ... and I love it.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling?

I love creating content, I get inspired by Naomi Campbell ... I love her energy she gives, it’s contagious. I love how she creates such magic in all she does. She is beautiful inside and out.

"My sexiest feature has to be my smile!"
- Christine Miller, Featured Model

How would you describe your modeling style?
I love to create magical art with my modeling; it's more of a feeling, a higher vibration. I get inspired, but first I have to use my imagination and gain inspiration from nature.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?
Shooting at a surf spot, China Walls in Hawaii. It got dangerous when we had to cross over ledges with the unexpected crashing waves.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?
I love shooting, creating new content always! My long-term goals are to continue to help people live a healthy lifestyle, which my modeling helps do just that.

How long have you been modeling?
A little less then a year.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling?
I've always wanted to model did a few shoots in highschool, but got recently really Inspired from a few of my close friends that have Been modelling for years. The art that they create using their bodies has always astounded me and once I did my first shoot, I haven't gone back!

Q&A

How would you describe your modeling style?
I love doing stuff that's risky and eye catching, I love to be creative.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?
It's been tough with COVID as I'm not able to travel and work with certain photographers that I've been waiting to. But I'm sure once the travel restrictions lift, I'll be able to get the ball rolling and have those memorable moments!

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?
To inspire young women to feel comfortable in their bodies and be a light on encouraging girls to do whatever the f they want to because it's YOUR life! Long-term, would be to work with high end fashion magazines/companies and I've always wanted to be a Victoria's Secret model/angel.

What is your sexiest feature?
I consistently get told I have a nice smile, along with my figure!

How to Take a Stress-Free Holiday Road Trip

Holiday travel can be stressful, but it should be fun, too. Advance planning and proper car care can take much of the stress out of a holiday road trip and leaving you free to enjoy the ride.

Checklists for each aspect of the trip will help ensure that nothing important is left behind, and that you are safe and prepared in case of an emergency. When it's time for a holiday road trip, keep these tips in mind for smooth travels:

Check your ride: A complete car check before a road trip should include making sure the fluid levels are sufficient. Make sure wiper blades and the wiper mechanism itself is working properly. Check your lights, including brights, to be sure they are functional. And, last but not least, don't forget your tires. Tires are the connection between your car and the road, so be sure to examine the tread for signs of excess wear.

"Traction and tread are inextricably linked. The grooves in your tires are critical in helping to channel water away to allow the tire to grip the road," says Sarah Robinson, Michelin safety expert. "Making sure you're driving on tires with proper tread can be the difference between avoiding an accident and becoming part of it."

Be prepared: Equip your car with an emergency kit, including water, flashlight, blanket, jumper cables, extra windshield wiper fluid, cell phone charger, and emergency phone numbers for roadside assistance, as well as a contact person at your destination.

Map your route: Check your route in advance and, if possible, plan your trip for times with less traffic. If you are planning to use a map feature on your phone, use the voice component; if you don't have that, consult a paper map and get a sense of the route before you get behind the wheel.

Safety first: That means the driver focuses on driving. If you are the driver and need to check your phone, send a message, have a snack, or tend to a child or pet in the back seat, wait for a rest stop, or if necessary, pull over to the side of the road.

Watch the weather: Especially during winter holidays, knowing the weather in advance can help you plan to avoid a storm. If conditions are truly dangerous, the smart move is to postpone your trip until the weather improves.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW

STEFANIE BREE

"Modeling has made many important changes to my life..."

I am just a small-town girl from Central Maine. I love hanging out with friends and family, being a social butterfly, enjoying my puppy and shopping or being outdoors. I love my busy life, but have begun to try to simplify it! Modeling has made many important changes to my life. It has taught me a lot about who I am as a person, as well as increased my self-confidence.

How long have you been modeling?
It's been 4 years, since the Spring of 2017 that I started my modeling journey.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling?
I've had many people inspire me. My mother has been a huge support and my friend Katherine got me started. However, Chrissy Victoria of Light Works Studio has been my Model Inspiration. I have always been so impressed with her confidence, style, beauty, and sex appeal.

How would you describe your modeling style?
I've tried to follow Chrissy's lead and develop a style of glamor that is partly my take on beauty blended with hers. I love sexy swimwear, sexy lingerie, and implied nudes.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?
It's hard to really nail down just one. I've won a couple of awards from another magazine. I've been on several covers for several publications, including RHK Empire, and that always is a joy. I've been a headliner at a special workshop, as well as other Studio events. All of those have been wonderful.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?
My goals are actually all blended into short and long-term. I want to continue to develop and expand my brand. I want to create new commercial opportunities that allow me to take my modeling to the next level. I'd also like to travel with my modeling at some point.

"This feature and the next RHK feature are some of the sexiest I've done with the emphasis being on full implied nudes. I've come to be quite comfortable with this content and it certainly is popular with my fans..."
